

Anthony P. Doye, President and CEO, Fujitsu America

Tony Doye was named president and CEO of Fujitsu America in April, 2010. In his role, Tony has ultimate responsibility for all Fujitsu business activities in the United States, Canada and Caribbean regions.

Mr. Doye has enjoyed a broad range of experience in creating and delivering solutions that improve client service levels and nurture innovation. He has served in a variety of senior roles in a number of diverse disciplines, including customer engineering, systems integration and new business development.

Prior to joining Fujitsu, Mr. Doye served as senior vice president at Unisys and president of Global Outsourcing and Infrastructure Services at Unisys, where he was responsible for driving growth in the company's outsourcing and infrastructure services businesses.

Before joining Unisys, Mr. Doye was group president of Strategic Programs and the Technology Management Group at Computer Sciences Corporation. During his tenure at CSC, Mr. Doye held numerous global leadership roles in IT services, IT outsourcing, application outsourcing and consulting services. Prior to CSC, he held several global business management roles at IBM and British Telecom.

Mr. Doye is married and has four children. He resides in Washington, D.C., and has an interest in sports.